THE Presbytery of Redstone was erected by the Synod of New York and Philadelphia. The entire minute on the subject is as follows: "At a meeting of the Synod of New York and Philadelphia held at Philadelphia ye 16th of May, 1781.

The Revd. Messrs. Joseph Smith, John McMillan, James Power & Thaddeus Dodd having requested to be erected into a separate P.b.y, to be known by the name of the P.b.y, of Redstone: the Synod grant their request, and appoint their first meeting to be held at Laurel Hill Church the third Wednesday of September next at 11 o'clock A. M."

It will be observed that no geographical limits were assigned, nor any particular Churches designated. Laurel Hill Church is in Fayette Co., Pa., (then, 1781, Westmoreland Co.), and still retains its name and organization.

This Presbytery was the first one formed west of the Allegheny Mountains, and exercised Jurisdiction throughout Western Penna. and outlying early settlements; and was one of the Pioneers of Protestant Christianity in that region. Many of its Churches have celebrated their Centennial.

The Synod of Pittsburg appreciating the great historical value of the early records of the Presbytery, and the importance of their preservation, at its meeting in 1877, appointed the undersigned a Committee to publish the same, provided the necessary funds could be secured. The requisite amount having been pledged, an edition of 300 copies is now issued, embracing the Minutes entire from the organization up to the close of 1831.

Great care has been taken to ensure a verbatim and literatim copy of the original.

A supplication for supplies from Tyrone congregation was brought in and read.

An application was made in behalf of Muddy Creek for supplies.

The P.b.y. proceeded to make out supplies:

Mr. Smith appointed to supply at the meeting house in the Forks, the 3d Sab. of November; two other days at discretion, both as to time and place.

Mr. Power appointed to supply at Tyrone, the 2d Sab. of Decembr; at Muddy Creek one day at discretion; at Col. Cook's, the 2d Sab. of March.

Mr. Dunlap appointed to supply at Muddy Creek, the 2d Sab. of Novembr; at George's Creek, the 3d Sab. of Decembr; at Tyrone, the 2d Sab. of March.

Mr. McMillan appointed to supply at the Ohio Court-house, the 3d Sab. of November; at the forks' meeting house, the 4th Sab. of Decembr; at Muddy Creek, ye 1st Sab. of March.

Upon motion being made, the P.b.y. unanimously agreed that they would in no case whatever marry any person by Licence, but would adhere to the rules laid down in the Westminster directory.

Application being made by the united congregations of the forks of Yougheny for liberty to present a Call to the Revd. James Finley, a member of the P.b.y. of New Castle, the P.b.y. grant their request, and order the Clerk to furnish them with a copy of this minute.

John Matson appeared before P.b.y. and exhibited the following charges against the Revd. James Dunlap.

1. That Mr. Dunlap charged him with coming to his house to take the advantage of and wrangle with him.
2. That Mr. Dunlap accused him with unchristian conduct towards him.
3. That Mr. Dunlap denied him ordination as a ruling elder; and,
4. For not letting the reasons why he did so be known to the congregation.

Mr. Dunlap acknowledges that he did say that Mr. Matson did treat him in an unchristian manner, and gives, as the reason why he did say so, that though he had made some concessions, and acknowledged that he had been too rash with respect to the baptizing of a certain Audley Rea's child, with which Mr. Matson declared himself satisfied; yet he still continued to mention that piece of inadvertence to others in such a manner as had a tendency to hurt his character as a Gospel minister. In support of which Mr. Dunlap produces the following witnesses.

Caleb Wingate, being solemnly called upon to declare the truth, says that Mr. Matson told him that Mr. Norris informed Mr. Dunlap of Audley Rea's drinking and swearing previous to his baptizing his child, and that he spoke in such a manner as showed him to be still dissatisfied, after acknowledgements made, with which he professed himself satisfied; and expressed himself in such a manner as had a tendency to hurt Mr. Dunlap's usefulness as a Minister of the Gospel.

Isaac Sterret being solemnly called upon to declare the truth, says that at a Raising at Mr. Tate's, Mr. Matson said that Mr. Dunlap baptized Audley Rea's child, & would not baptize others in the like circumstances. He said also that Mr. Dunlap had confessed his fault, and afterwards denied it; that Mr. Norris had informed him of Audley Rea's character; that Mr. Norris made it appear at another time that he had informed him, and that Mr. Dunlap had nothing to say in his own defence.

Mr. Matson acknowledges that he told Mr. Wingate and Mr. Sterret these things which they have declared, and gives this as his reason for so doing, viz:

That he heard Mr. Dunlap saying that he looked upon it that he had done no wrong in baptizing Audley Rea's child after he had made the forementioned concessions.

The P.b.y. after fully hearing both parties, with respect to the first charge, do judge that Mr. Dunlap had sufficient ground for saying what he did; inasmuch as John Matson, coming to Mr. Dunlap's in company with some others, joined with them in wrangling with, and treating him in a very unbecoming and disorderly manner.

With respect to the second charge the P.b.y. judge that Mr. Dunlap was treated in an unchristian manner by John Matson; and at the same time could have wished that Mr. Dunlap had been more cautious in the admission of Audley Rea.

With respect to the two last charges the P.b.y. judge that Mr. Dunlap had sufficient reason for not ordaining Mr. Matson; inasmuch as it has been made appear before them that objections were laid in against him by a member of the congregation; and that he was justifiable in not publishing the reasons to the congregation.

Upon the whole, the P.b.y. can not but highly disapprove of Mr. Matson's conduct, especially at Mr. Dunlap's house, and do judge that he submit to an admonition from the Moderator.

To this judgement the parties submitted, and John Matson was accordingly admonished by the Moderator.

Adjourned to meet at Pidgeon Creek the 2d tuesday of March next, at 12 o'clock. Concluded with Prayer.

PIDGEON CREEK, TUESDAY, ye 11th of March, 1783.

Ordered that the minutes of the last session be now read.

The Revd. John Clark, formerly a member of the New-Castle P.b.y. now makes application to be admitted as a member of this. Upon his producing sufficient testimonials, and a dismission from that P.b.y. is accordingly received, and takes his seat as a member of this. Ordered that the minutes of the last meeting of P.b.y be now read.

Mr. Dodd's reasons for not attending our last meeting are sustained.

The P.b.y. find that the members have punctually fulfilled their appointments, except Mr. Dunlap in one instance, whose reasons for that omission are sustained. Upon motion,

Resolved, That Magistrates belonging to our community marrying any person in a way contrary to the prescriptions of the law respecting marriage; and all persons belonging to us obtaining marriage, either by magistrates or ministers contrary to the law, shall be esteemed censurable by this Church.

Ordered that this, and the minute of the last meeting of P.b.y. respecting marriage, be read by the members in their congregations, and in the vacancies under our care.

Mr. Dunlap appointed to supply at Muddy Creek two Sab. at discretion.

Mr. Dodd appointed to supply at the S. fork of Ten Mile two Sabbaths at discretion.

Mr. Clark appointed to supply two Sab. at discretion, both as to time and place.

As the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, taking into consideration the evil consequences of congregations suffering arrearages to be long unsettled between them and their ministers, did enjoin it upon them to produce a new settlement every year to their respective Presbyteries; therefore, in obedience to this act of Synod, this P.b.y. does require their several members, with their respective congregations, to produce such settlements to us at our next meeting; and that the congregations be prepared to answer such questions as may be put to them respecting the diligence and care of their Pastors.

Mr. Smith, agreeable to the requisition of P.b.y. at their last meeting, produces a settlement with the congregation of Cross-Creek, whereby it appears that there will be due to him from sd congregation, against the 1st of Decembr next, the just and full sum of £113 5s. 3d.

Upon enquiry it is found that settlements have not been made by congregations with their respective Pastors, according to the requirement made at our last meeting, except between Mr. Smith and Cross-Creek: it is therefore enjoined upon them to have such settlements made, and to produce them at our next meeting. Upon enquiry it is found that the congregations are satisfied with the care and diligence of their respective Pastors.

A reference was brought in from the session of Mount Pleasant, respecting a complaint of George Latimore against Deborah Ross, which is as follows:

That Deborah Ross had falsely reported that she left her house sundery times for fear of him.

The P.b.y. after duely considering sd complaint, and hearing all that the parties had to offer, do judge that sd complaint is without any just foundation, inasmuch as it appears that George Latimore stands convicted of immodest behavior toward Deborah Ross, for which he ought to submit to an admonition before the session, and that, for removing the scandal, his compliance be made known to the congregation. To which judgment George Latimore refuses to submit.

Adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock. Concluded with Prayer.

THURSDAY, ye 23d.

The P.b.y. met according to adjournment. U. P. P. S. Q. S.

Ordered to read the minutes of the last session.

Robert Hall appeared before P.b.y. and exhibited the following complaint against the session of Mount Pleasant congregation, viz:

To the Moderator and remanent members of Redstone P.b.y.

now sitting at Mount Pleasant meeting-house: The complaint and application of Robert Hall humbly sheweth—

That whereas I, your complainant, upon application to the Revd. Mr. Power for a continuation of the common privileges of a regular church-member. have been refused the same; and afterwards to several members of the session, but was still kept back; upon which I made application to the Revd. Moderator and other members of the session in writing, but was still denied, without ever satisfying me with anything that appeared like reason for my being so refused.

I therefore your complainant do now lay the case before your Wisdoms, that you may judge whether I am justly debared from privileges or not, as I do apprehend, In either said nor did anything that might be a bar in my way in that respect.—Therefore, upon examination into the case your Wisdoms will be able to judge whether I have cause of complaint or not; unto whose judgment I do humbly appeal.

ROBERT HALL.

The P.b.y. after hearing both parties, do judge that though Mr. Hall had ground of uneasiness, inasmuch as he was really a sufferer; yet Mr. Power was not to be blamed, as it was entirely through the fault of the congregation that he failed in performing his contract: Therefore, tho' the P.b.y. could have wished that Mr. Hall had not expressed himself so rashly in some instances, yete verything considered, we are of opinion that he may be admitted to church privileges without making any particular concessions.

Upon new light being offered, the P.b.y. further judge that Mr. Hall profess his sorrow for his using some expressions reflecting upon Mr. Power's character.

To this judgment Mr. Hall refuses to submit.

WEDNESDAY, June ye 22d.

The P.b.y. met according to adjournment. U. P. P. S. Q. S. except John Gaston, who had leave of absence.

Ordered to read the minutes of the last session.

Henery Taylor being come, the P.b.y. proceeded to hear the reasons of his appeal.

The P.b.y. having heard what each party had to say, and maturely deliberating on the whole, conclude: That altho' Henery Taylor denies that the charge against him was proved, or that ever he had confessed that he had done what he was charged with; and altho' the session, through inadvertency, we suppose, neglected to set down his acknowledgment to Mr. McMillan, which we have now heard, viz: that he, sd Taylor, had directed and assisted the company in going through a reel in dancing, which he supposed they had gone wrong in; yet we think that the evidence of John Riddle, now offered to us by Mr. Taylor, viz: that Mr. Taylor, at the request of the company, had allowed them an hour to recreate themselves in dancing; together with the testimony of some members of P.b.y. who had heard him acknowledge the same at a former meeting, gives us sufficient reason to conclude that he did give such a relation to Mr. McMillan, and did countenance and approve of promiscuous dancing, which was greatly aggravated in him by the circumstances mentioned in the minutes of the session, and some other things in the congregation; and did carry the appearance of being done in contempt;

Therefore, as promiscuous dancing is condemned by the body of the Godly and Judicious in all ages, as well as by our own standards, and is generally attended with bad effects, we can not think that the Session were too rigorous in their judgment; and, therefore, with them must conclude that Mr. Taylor, in order to admission to church privileges, ought to acknowledge his fault before this P.b.y. or before the Session of the congregation to which he belongs, and be admonished to more circumspection for the future; and that this, his acknowledgment, should be signified to the congregation by Mr. McMillan.

Finally, as Mr. Taylor declares that he did not act in the above affair out of contempt, we think that his declaration ought to be received as candid and true. From this judgment Mr. Taylor reserves a liberty of appealing to Synod, if, upon deliberation, he shall think proper.

If he does appeal, the Clerk is ordered to furnish him with a copy of the above judgment, upon his producing the reasons of his appeal.

Adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock. Concluded with Prayer.

THURSDAY, June ye 23d.

The P.b.y met according to adjournment U. P. P. S. Q. S.

Ordered to read the minutes of the last session.

The P.b.y finding that many difficulties arise from marriages celebrated by Mr. Hughy and such Persons who have no authority, either civil or ecclesiastic for so doing; do therefore judge that such marriages be discountenanced, and people cautioned against them as unlawful.

The P.b.y taking into serious consideration the unspeakable goodness of God in planting his Church in this, not long since, an howling wilderness, the habitation of savages; in accompanying his ordinances with the almighty influences of his holy spirit; and considering also the great danger we are in of provoking God to withhold those gracious influences, and that multitudes are still careless and hardening under the means: do therefore think it their incumbent duty to appoint a day of fasting and prayer to be observed in their respective congregations to implore a more plentiful out-pouring of divine influences upon the Church in general, and upon his infant church in this land in particular; & at the same time to acknowledge with gratitude the many mercies both special and common conferred upon us.

We do therefore appoint the first thursday of Septembr next to be observed for the above purposes.

And if they do not agree to remain united, to see yt. a fair settlement be made with Mr. Power in order to prepare the way for a dismissal at our next meeting: and that both parties be notified to attend at our next meeting by their Representatives duly prepared to give such light as may be necessary in order to a final issue of the matter.

John Hamilton appeared before the P.b.y, and desired that a new Committee be appointed to reconsider his affair.

The P.b.y being of opinion that Mr. Hamilton has not given them sufficient reason to expect any new light on the affair, cannot agree to grant his request; and consequently do confirm the judgment of the Committee.

George Latimer and Deborah Ross being present, the P.b.y proceeded to consider their affair.

The P.b.y after maturely deliberating upon the above affair, and examining all the witnesses that were produced on either side, can not but testify their abhorrence of such conduct as is mentioned in Deborah Ross's solemn declaration, and had their been no obscurity thrown on her evidence by the seeming (tho' perhaps not ill-designed variations in her conduct and evidence) we would have been very clear in asserting that the censure in the former judgment was low.

But as Mrs. Ross's evidence is in part rendered somewhat dubious, altho' there is too much ground to suspect immodest conduct in Mr. Latimer, yet we can not, with sufficient clearness, fix such a positive censure upon him, but think there is ground for, and we do hereby admonish him to be more cautious and watchful in time to come. And as this affair is become public do order this judgment to be read to the congregation of which he has been a member on the Sabbath day. To this judgment the parties submitted.

Adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock. Concluded with Prayer.

The P.b.y met according to adjournment U. P. P. S. Q. S.

Ordered to read the minutes of the last session.

John Coleman having left his wife in Irland, and married another in this country, his former wife being yet alive. makes application to this P.b.y to be restored to Church privileges, alledging, that by the laws of God and man he was free from her, as by her conduct in his absence she had violated her marriage covenant in a very essential part; of which he had sufficient information, before his second marriage: which he proposes to support by evidence.

Alexander Hunter being solemnly called upon to declare the truth, says that when he was last in Irland he was informed by the neighbours of Mary Coleman, wife to John Coleman, that she had behaved basely, was taken in the very act of Adultery with a certain Henery Irvin; and that when he, the sd. Hunter, proposed to pay her passage, and bring her to her Husband, she refused to come, and told him that if he was himself present, she would not go with him. Mr. Hunter further declares that he read a letter from Mr. Coleman's father informing that she had borne one bastard child, and was then great with another, and was therefore dead as to him.

Barbara Hunter being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that she heard a letter from Mr. Coleman's father read, containing the particulars before mentioned.

Robert Reyburn being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he was informed by a certain Edward Deny, who came from the same town where Mary Coleman lived, that it was commonly reported there and believed that she had behaved very basely, and was taken in the act of Adultery with a certain Henery Irvin. Mr. Reyburn further informs us that he has been long acquainted with Mr. Coleman, that he has always sustained a good moral character, both in Irland and in this country, and never made any secret of his having a wife in Irland.

As Mr. Coleman proposes to produce other witnesses, Mr. Power is appointed together with the session of Salem, to take their evidences and report the same at our meeting next fall.

The P.b.y, according to the order at our last August's meeting, proceeded to consider the affair of Mr. Hall and the session of Mount-Pleasant; and after fully hearing both parties, do judge that though Mr. Hall was disappointed in his expectations, and might thereby be a sufferer, yet we do not think yt. Mr. Power was to blame, nor that Mr. Hall had any just grounds for using some expressions reflecting on Mr. Power's character; and we further judge that before he be restored to distinguishing privileges he acknowledge his rashness in using such expressions, and that he be admonished by the Moderator. To this judgment Mr. Hall submitted, and was admonished accordingly.

The P.b.y finding that there is no good grounds to expect that the affair between Mr. Clark and Lebanon congregation will be comfortably settled; the P.b.y do therefore judge that the pastoral relation between him and that congregation ought to be, and is hereby dissolved; and enjoin them to produce a settlement with Mr. Clark at our next meeting; and Mr. Clark is hereby appointed to preach in that congregation on a week day, and Mr. Sheilds to read this minute.

An appeal from a judgment of the Session of Bethel congregation was brought in by Hugh Sterling and read together with all the papers relative thereunto.

The P.b.y having maturely considered the matter, and also enquired at the Moderator of the Session, and at Mr. Clark who was present at the time, respecting the manner in which Mr. Titball submitted to the judgment of the Session, and found yt. both agreed that Mr. Titball delared that he did not remember his denying his promise to give the order; but if he did, it must have been in a passion, or without due consideration, & was a deviation from the truth in words, tho' not in design, and that the submission was not therefore absolute but conditional.

The P.b.y maturely deliberating on the whole do unanimously conclude that ye Session are defective in their minutes, and ought to have been more cautious in their judgment respecting Mr. Titbal.

In other respects we see no reason to alter their judgment with regard to Hugh Sterling. The P.b.y order that Mr. Clark read this judgment, together with the judgment of the Session in the congregation of Bethel.

Adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Concluded with Prayer.

Application having been made by Mr. Dunlap for a dismissal from the congregation of Delap's Creek: the P.b.y order that the congregation be notified hereof, and attend at our next Spring's meeting, to shew reason, if any they have, why Mr. Dunlap's request should not be granted.

The P.b.y taking into their serious consideration the declension of vital religion amongst us, the spreading of error, the threatening aspect of divine Providence in respect of the seasons, and the great danger we are in of provoking God to withdraw the gracious influences of his Spirit, do therefore think it their incumbant duty to appoint a day of fasting and prayer to be observed in their respective congregations, and vacancies under their care, to implore a plentiful out-pouring of divine influences upon the Church in general, and upon this infant Church in this land in particular; and at the same time to acknowledge with gratitude the many mercies, both special and common conferred upon us, and deprecate the judgments which now threaten us.

The P.b.y do therefore appoint the third Thursday of Novembr next to be observed for the above purposes.

Messrs. Hughs, Brice and Patterson have fulfilled their appointments.

The members present have fulfilled their appointments except Mr. Dunlap whose reasons for which omission are sustained.

The congregation of Delap's-Creek appeared by their commissioner, and signified that they had no reasons to offer why Mr. Dunlap should not be dismissed, especially since he manifests an unwillingness to remain with them any longer; and altho' the P.b.y can not justify his conduct in forsaking that congregation without a regular dismissal, yet as we do not think that his continuance there would be for edification; we do therefore judge that the pastoral relation between him and that congregation ought to be, and is hereby dissolved.

Mr. Dod and Mr. Barr are now come, their reasons for not coming sooner are sustained. Mr. Dod's Elder is Daniel Extell.

PITTSBURGH June ye 9th, 1789.

The P.b.y met according to adjournment U. P. P. S. the Revd. Messrs. James Finley, John Clark, Joseph Smith and John McMillan & Samuel Barr.

Absent the Revd. Messrs. James Power, Thaddeus Dod and James Dunlap.

The P.b.y was opened with a sermon on Phil. 3. 8. by Mr. McMillan.

The stated Moderator and Clerk being absent, Mr. Finley was chosen Moderator and Mr. McMillan Clerk pro tempore.

Ordered that the minutes of the last meeting of P.b.y be now read.

Mr. Finley's reasons for being absent from our last meeting are sustained.

Mr. Barr produced the following reasons why he desired to be dismissed from his pastoral relation to the united congregations of Pittsburgh and Pitt's township viz:

1. Because he supposes he may preach the Gospel elsewhere with more success.
2. Because he has not been able to exercise church discipline having too few to support him in that branch of his duty.

3. Because no active measures have been taken by the Trustees to comply with their agreement: but on the contrary have appointed him to collect his own salary for the last year, which was as much as to say that he might hunt after his salary from door to door, it was none of their business.

4. Because Robt. Galbraith and John Wilkens Esqrs. Elders of the church, have not supported characters becoming their office; but have indulged themselves in drinking and Card-playing—Mr. Wilkens is charged with being idle with women: and Mr. Galbraith has not settled his accounts with him for stipend collected by him from October 1785, till April '87.

5. Because William Dunning Elder, besides his not paying a strict attention to his word, has not been scrupulous in altering his neighbours land-mark, which betrays a covetous disposition, and unbecoming one who should be an example to the flock.

Lastly. That since his application he has still more reason to continue his resolution, from the industry of the above named Gentlemen, together with George Wallace Esqr. to render his labours useless both here and elsewhere, by circulating false reports, and preventing the congregation and himself from worshipping God in a peaceable manner in the house of worship on ye Sabbath day.

Charges exhibited by the Session and Trustees of Pittsburgh congregation against the Revd. Samuel Barr in consequence of his application to P.b.y for a dismissal from the united congregations of Pittsburgh and Pitt's township: And in compliance with a notification from P.b.y to the Session and Trustees of Pittsburgh congregation to send commissioners to shew cause, if any they have, why sd. Barr should not be removed from his pastoral relation to them.

1. They intend to shew that Mr. Barr has not had any reason from Pittsburgh congregation to make any such application.

2. They intend to shew that Mr. Barr has not done his duty as a Clergyman to sd. congregation, by absenting himself from them at sundry times, without the consent of Session or congregation, or leave obtained, or his business abroad known to them.

3. They intend to shew that Mr. Barr has not done his duty as a Clergyman by not visiting the families of sd. congregation at their houses, and in not catechising and examining them as he ought to do.

4. They intend to shew that Mr. Barr has collected a considerable sum of money in Philadelphia and New-York for the use of Pittsburgh congregation, and has never rendered any account of the same, nor paid any part of it into the hands of the Trustees or to any other person for the use of said Church.

Adjourned to meet to morrow morning at 8 o'clock. Concluded with Prayer.

WEDNESDAY June ye 10th.

The P.b.y met according to adjournment U. P. P. S. Q. S.

Ordered to read the minutes of the last session.

Mr. Barr alledges in support of his first reason that he has preached the Gospel elsewhere with more success, and that it appears that there is little prospect of his being useful any longer in this place as the people have generally withdrawn from the public ordinances.

In answer to this the representatives of the people alledge that the fault is in Mr. Barr and not in them: that it was his own misconduct that disgusted the people, and occasioned their none attendance upon his ministry. In support of which they produce the following instances.

1. His improper and imprudent conduct in the affair of Doctor Bedford's Marriage.

Dr. Bedford being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that before he was married he had at different times called at Mr. Barr's house in order to get him to perform the ceremony; but he being not at home, nor known when he would return; and the day being set and the Guests bidden, he found it inconvenient to defer the marriage longer: and therefore, with the advice of friends, sent for Mr. Philips, who came and performed the business.

That Mr. Barr returning the same evening, was the next morning invited to Breckfast with them: that when he came he behaved in a very insulting manner both towards Mr. Ormsby and Mr. Philips, as he, sd. Bedford, was informed by both these Gentlemen.

Mr. Bedford being asked whether Mr. Barr's conduct on this occasion was the reason why he withdrew from the public ordinances? He answered that though this much disgusted him, yet he did not instantly withdraw: but his after conduct, taken in connection with this, was the occasion why he at last withdrew.

Mr. Ormsby being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that when Mr. Barr came to his house on the morning after his daughter's marriage, he appeared to be in anger, and that his calling Mr. Philips to an account for marrying his daughter in the manner he did, gave him umbrage, and was the occasion of his breaking off from the congregation.

Mr. Wilkens being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that being at Mr. Ormsby's on the morning above referred to, he saw nothing unbecoming in Mr. Barr's conduct, though he apprehended that Mr. Barr appeared warm in his conversation with Mr. Philips.

Mr. Tanihill being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says that he saw nothing unbecoming in Mr. Barr's conduct at Mr. Ormsby's on the morning above referred to.

2. His treatment of Gen. Gibson in the affair of baptizing his child.

Gen. Gibson being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he applied to Mr. Barr to know whether he would baptize the children of Episcopalians who were subscribers to him: he answered that he would baptize the children of any subscriber upon the recommendation of two of the Committee. He then asked Mr. Barr whether that would not give offence to the P.b.y on this side the mountains? Mr. Barr answered that he did not design to connect himself with the P.b.y here as he knew them to be a people of contracted minds. Afterwards he applied to Mr. Barr to baptize a child for him, which he agreed to do: but on the way between his house and Mr. Gibson's he informed him that as he belonged to the Episcopalian Church it might give offence if he presented the child to baptism, and therefore requested that Mrs. Gibson might do it; which was accordingly done.

Gen. Gibson observing that other Episcopalians had their children baptized in the same manner that presbyterians had, apprehended that Mr. Barr must have some other reason for his conduct towards him in the above affair than what he had given him: and therefore at a meeting of the Committee, he asked Mr. Barr what his reason was why he did not permit him to present his child in the usual manner? Mr. Barr answered that it was a point of delicacy, and refused to give him any reason: and that this part of Mr. Barr's conduct was the principal occasion of his breaking off from the congregation.

Mr. Duncan being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he heard Gen. Gibson asking Mr. Barr whether he would baptize the children of Episcopalians who subscribed to him: Mr. Barr answered that he would baptize for any subscriber upon the recommendation of two of the Committee.

3. His conduct in publishing a piece in the Gazette subscribed a Farmer.

Col. Byard being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he cannot positively say that Mr. Barr is the Author of the piece above mentioned: but that it is generally believed that he is the Author of it.

Mr. Wilkens being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says.

that Mr. Barr acknowledged to him that he was the Author of the piece above referred to.

Mr. Barr objected against Mr. Wilkens being admitted as a witness against him, because he looked upon him as his accuser: but it being made appear to the P.b.y that he with two others were appointed by the Session and Trustees to transact business in behalf of the congregation before the P.b.y they concluded that Mr. Wilken was not in this case an accuser, and therefore judged that his evidence ought to be taken.

4. His refusing to chatechise a bound girl belonging to Col. Tannehill.

Mr. Tannehill being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he applied to Mr. Barr to chatechise his bound Girl with the other children of the congregation: Mr. Barr enquired whether she had been baptized; he answered that she was not, that her parents had forbid him to have her baptized untill she came to years of discretion to chuse for herself: Mr. Barr replied that he could not chatechise her unless she was baptized; and intimated to him that if he would stand for her himself he would baptize her, and then chatechise her: Mr. Tannehill replied that he could not do that being forbid by her parents: and that this and some other parts of his conduct was the occasion of his withdrawing from the public ordinances.

Mr. Barr declares that he remembers nothing of the above affair, but alledges that there must have been a misapprehension in the case.

5. His refusing to baptize a child for Galbraith Wilson without money being first given.

Mr. Wilson being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he applied to Mr. Barr to baptize his child, it being sick; Mr. Barr enquired whether he was a subscriber; he answered, he was not: Mr. Barr then told him that it was not customary to baptize for any that were not subscribers: he answered that he was very willing to subscribe and take a part of a seat, but that no one had ever asked him so to do; Mr. Barr told him that he could not baptize it, as he was not a member of the congregation, except he would give him two dollars: Mr. Wilson then replied that he was a poor man, and had not the money to give.

In support of Mr. Barr's second and fourth reasons for desiring a dismission he produced the following witnesses.

Mr. Wilken being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that frequently Mr. Galbraith and himself together with others met in the evening and took a game at Whist or loo; that Mr. Barr was frequently present, and was so far from discountenancing them, that upon a certain occasion being invited to take a game at loo, he said it would not suit, as there was a number of bigoted, narrow-hearted McMillanites on the other side of the river, who, if they would hear of it, might call him to an account: that when Mr. Barr spoke to him about being an Elder, he replied that it would not suit him, as he was fond of taking a game at Cards, and would not wish to be restricted in that amusement when he met with agreeable friends; to w^c. Mr. Barr replied that he might be indulged in that with his friends, provided he did not get into roits, and kept it from the knowledge of the people.

Mr. Wilken further declares that he never remembers to have seen Mr. Galbraith so intoxicated with spirituous liquor as to lose the use either of his senses or limbs; and that he never knew him to play cards for money.

Mr. Adams being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he frequently saw Mr. Galbraith playing cards, but never for money; that he never saw Mr. Barr present when cards were playing, and often heard him express his dislike to that game. Upon a question being asked, Mr. Adams further says that he has heard Mr. Barr saying that there was no crime in playing cards in a private house.

Mr. Adams being asked whether he attended at the meetings for playing Cards at the time referred to in Mr. Wilken's evidence, he answered, he did not.

Col. Byard being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he frequently heard Mr. Barr express his dislike to card-playing; though at several times he saw him present where card playing was practised. He also declares that he never saw Mr. Galbraith drunk.

Mr. Kirkpatrick being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he never saw Mr. Galbraith or Mr. Wilken drunk; that he heard Mr. Barr heartily approving of meetings in the evening for playing cards, provided they did not drink to excess, and all were not engaged in it, but that some might converse on politics.

Mr. Brison being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, y^t. though he has seen Mr. Galbraith at times in some measure elevated with liquor, yet he never saw him so intoxicated as to incapacitate him for doing any business that occurred.

In support of the charge of adultery or fornication against Mr. Wilken, Mr. Barr produces the following witnesses.

Elizabeth Coughan being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that shortly after she came to live near to Mr. Wilken's, he came into her house on a certain day, and after enquiring how she was provided in necessities, he gave her two small pieces of money, at the same time saying something which she took an ill meaning from, but does not remember the particular expressions: she further adds that he neither then, nor at any other time offered to lay hands upon her, or attempted anything indecent.

James Smith being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that he heard Mrs. Coughan say that Mr. Wilken gave her money in order that he might have criminal correspondence with her.

Adjourned to meet to morrow morning at 8 o'clock. Concluded with Prayer.

THURSDAY ye 11th of June,

The P.b.y met according to adjournment U. P. P. S. Q. S.

Ordered to read the minutes of the last session.

In support of the charge against Mr. Dunning Mr. Barr says that he, said Dunning, in altering a fence from a worm to a straight fence, he set the straight fence considerably in upon a lot in his, Mr. Barr's possession. In order to ascertain the truth of the above charge, the P.b.y recommended to the parties to nominate two persons to view and measure the ground, and make report to P.b.y; accordingly John McMasters and John Erwin were nominated.

Mr. McMasters and Mr. Erwin report that they have viewed the fence above referred to, and are of opinion that the straight fence stands as near the middle of the ground upon which the worm fence stood as possible without being at more exactness than is usually taken upon such occasions.

It being asked when this fence was altered, it was answered that it was done on the day when Mr. Barr returned from P.b.y last April.

With respect to the charge against Mr. Dunning of not paying a strict attention to his word; the P.b.y find that the particular in which Mr. Dunning has not kept his word, was about mending a lock, which Mr. Barr alledges he did not do at the time appointed. Mr. Dunning says that some part which was to be mended did not belong to his line of business, but told Mr. Barr that he would endeavour to get it done for him as soon as he could.

Mr. Barr's charge against the Trustees for using no active measures &c. is so far from being supported that on the contrary it appears that they have been very active, untill the last year when he agreed to collect for himself.

Upon the last reason of Mr. Barr, and the last charge exhibited by the Trustees and Session the following witnesses were taken.

Mr. Nox being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that in conversation with Mr. Barr he heard him say that he meant to pay for the building of the Pulpit himself, and understood from Mr. Barr's conversation that he had received a sum of money to the amount of about forty pounds from Philadelphia.

Mr. McMasters being solemnly called upon to declare the truth says, that according to the best of his knowledge he heard Mr. Barr say that he had donations from Philadelphia to the amount of about forty pounds.

The persons appointed to appear in behalf of the Session &c.; say, that the reasons why they shut the meeting house door were that they were dissatisfied with his conduct in absenting himself so long from the congregation, in making application to the Spanish Ambassador for a goverment in the Spanish Collonies in north America; in neglecting to call the Trustees and Session together after his return; or acquainting them with his design of leaving the congregation untill he had first applied to the P.b.y for a dismission; and also because his year was then out, and they did not wish to enter upon a new year.

In answer to the third charge exhibited against Mr. Barr he says that he did shortly after his settlement visit a number of families; but apprehending, by the expressions of some, that it was disagreeable, he determined to take another method; accordingly appointed the children to meet him at the meeting house there to be catechised, and followed this practice for the most part every summer since, on the Sabbath evenings.

Adjourned to meet to morrow morning at 8 o'clock. Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY ye 12th of June,

The P.b.y met according to adjournment U. P. P. S. Q. S.

Ordered to read the minutes of the last session.

The P.b.y after hearing all that the Parties had to say, examining the witnesses that were produced on either side, and maturely deliberating on the matter are of opinion that the reasons offered by Mr. Barr why he desires a dismission from the congregations of Pittsburgh and Pitts-township are groundless, and some of them, if they had been true, did not at all exist at the time when he made the application; it appearing evident to P.b.y in the course of the trial, that it was his own misconduct principally, that occasioned the people's non-attendance on his ministry; that he never had used any proper means to have discipline duely exercised, but on the contrary did himself countenance Card-playing and night-revelling, and did nominate and ordain persons as Elders, though he knew that they did practise, and by his permission determined to practise some of those very things which he now brings in as charges against them. And though he has brought in some very grivous charges against particular persons, yet it does not appear that he ever in private endavoured their reformation by admonishing or reproofing them for their conduct, and has entirely failed in proving any of them, except that of card-playing which was not denied. It further appeared in the course of the trial that Mr. Barr has in many things behaved in a manner very unbecoming a minister of the Gospel, in neglecting the visitation of the families in the town of Pittsburgh, and catechising, except a few children on the Sabbath evenings, and in one case refusing to baptize a child without money being first given, which last however is supported only by one witness—in publishing a piece in the Gazette in which are some very unbecoming expressions and one profane oath—in neglecting to consult with his Session, and make use of their assistance in the spiritual matters of the congregation—in his inconsistant proceedure in the affair of baptizing Gen. Gibson's child—and in neglecting to give the Trustees a proper account of the money subscribed for the use of the congregation, though there is not evidence to shew that he designed any fraud thereby.

Upon the whole the P.b.y conclude that the state of things in these congregations is such that there is no prospect of Mr. Barr's being useful amongst them, and that therefore the union between him and them ought to be, and is hereby dissolved.

They do also conclude that his conduct has been very injurious to the cause of religion and virtue, and that without an alteration will continue to be so; therefore, although we feel tenderly for him, yet we cannot see how we can justify ourselves before God, the world or our own Consciences without declaring this as our judgment, viz: that he ought not to exercise any part of his ministerial office untill the mind of our Synod is known thereon, to whom we do refer the ultimate determination of this affair.

The P.b.y cannot but testify, upon this occasion, their disapprobation of Card-playing, night-revelling, and using any expressions leading to immodest Ideas, as practices very unbecoming in any professor of religion, and such as would lay a just foundation for exclusion from Church priveleges in any congregation where discipline is duely exercised; and that therefore such of the Elders of the Church of Pittsburgh as have appeared before us to be guilty of such things ought to be, and are hereby admonished to abstain from such practices for the future, and be informed that without a reformation they ought to be further dealt with.

According to order the minutes of the last session were read.

Ordered that those who have not brought in their contributions for the support of missionaries, bring them in at our next meeting.

The P.b.y after conversing upon the recommendation of Synod respecting Baptism, deferred the further consideration thereof untill the Spring meeting.

The P.b.y after considering a recommendation of Synod respecting the institution of Seminaries of learning for the purpose of educating pious youth for the Ministry, did approve thereof: which is as follows.

As the supplying the churches with a pious and well qualified ministry is of acknowledged importance. Overtured

1st. That the Synod of Virginia undertake the patronage of a Seminary of learning for the purpose of educating young men for the Gospel ministry.

2ly. That they devise means for supporting or assisting young men of piety and genius in procuring an education, who may not be possessed of sufficient property for that purpose.

The Synod highly approve of the proposition contained in the overture, as they are well convinced of the necessity of extending the opportunities of acquiring knowledge, and especially the knowledge of the doctrines of religion to all who intend to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the world.

Taking this measure therefore into serious consideration, the Synod recommended that there be two general institutions for learning conducted under the patronage of this body—One to be established in Rockbridge County in Virginia, under the care of the Revd. William Graham as the President.—The other in Washington County Pennsylvania, under the care of the Revd. John McMillan—The principles upon which these institutions are to be conducted, are to be as follow.

1st. The learned languages, and usual circle of sciences shall be taught in them to as many as may be sent there for instruction.

2ly. During the course of accademical education, and from the first initiation of the students into the Seminaries, a course of religious instruction shall also be entered upon and continually adhered to during their residence there, according to the principles of our church—Books of a practicall and doctrinal nature shall be put into their hands at once. Chatechetical Lectures shall be established and examinations entered into upon their progress in this kind of knowledge from time to time. The attention to these studies shall be kept up during the whole of their accademical course, and suited to the capacities and progress of the youth.

3ly. The P.b.y of Lexington and Hanover shall be the Trustees of the Seminary in Rockbridge; to cherish it by their influence, and pointedly to attend the examinations of the Students either in a collective capacity, or by committees from their respective bodies duly appointed—The P.b.y of Redstone shall in like manner superintend the Seminary in Washington County.

4ly. In one or other of these Institutions it is the advice of the Synod that all the youth within our bounds who intend to engage in the ministry of the Gospel shall be instructed.

5ly. As there are a number of pious youth of promising genius in our Country who might be very servisable in preaching the Gospel, but thro' want of sufficient ability are unable to obtain an education, it is the intention and desire of Synod the ministers in their respective P.b.y.s shall seek out such, and that they, being examined and approved by the P.b.y, shall be placed in the respective Seminaries at the expence of the P.b.y who shall approve them.

6ly. In order to obtain the proper supplies for such indigent students the P.b.y.s are exhorted to use their influence in their respective bounds with the pious and benevolent to make annual contributions for raising a fund for this purpose; this fund to be placed in the hands of treasurers appointed by the Synod, who are to return annual accounts of receipts and expenditures; and from it the youth upon the foundation are to draw their supplies by an order from their respective Presidents. And those youth, upon obtaining their education, at the expiration of one year after being settled in some line of business, shall begin to refund to the Treasury the expences of their education in such time and manner as the P.b.y may direct.

7ly. The Rules of these Seminaries, and the mode of education therein shall be submitted by the Presidents to the respective P.b.y.s for their approbation.

The P.b.y therefore order their members to use their best endavours to obtain contributions for the above purpose, and put them into the hands of Mr. McMillan, who is appointed Treasurer, as soon as possible, and of their diligence herein to render an account at our next Spring meeting.

Agreeably to a recommendation of Synod respecting the religious observation of the Lord's day - Ordered that each minister of this P.b.y shall read sd. recommendation in their respective congregations, and engage spiritedly in complying with the same.

Mr. Swan brought in and read a presbyterial exercise on the subject appointed him at our last meeting, which was sustained as part of trials.

The P.b.y after maturely deliberating upon the matter could not see their way clear to receive him upon his credentials from that P.b.y, as it is a P.b.y unknown to us, and not in subordination to the genneral Assembly; but proceeded to converse with him as a minister from foreign parts, agreeably to the direction of the genneral Synod in such cases; and obtained such satisfaction as induced them to employ him in their vacancies, untill the next meeting of Synod: yet they expect that he will, before the meeting of Synod, produce some letters of recommendation from Ministers in S. Carolina known to them.

Mesrs. Robert Galbraith and John Wilken appeared before P.b.y, and proposed to produce evidence in order to exculpate themselves from a certain crime which had been laid to their charge, and upon the account of which they had been laid under censure by the Synod, viz: that they had confessed themselves to be influenced by fraudulent motives in their prosecution of Mr. Barr; and P.b.y finding that they were authorized by Synod to take evidence and determine respecting the propriety of sd. censure, proceeded to hear and examine such witnesses as were produced.

The Revd. James Finley being solemnly called upon to declare the truth, saith that being present he does not remember to have heard either Robert Galbraith or John Wilken express any thing to the committee of Synod met at Pittsburgh signifying their design of defrauding Mr. Barr of his salery; nor does he think that any such Idea, as is expressed in the minutes of the Committe of Synod, in which sd. Gentlemen are represented as having been influenced by a fraudulent design against Mr. Barr, was held forth by them.

That he does not remember that sd. gentlemen were called upon collectively or individually to appear as prosecutors against Mr. Barr, but that the general question being put by the Committee, who will come forward and prosecute Mr. Barr, they declared their willingness to appear before them in the same manner that they had formerly done before the P.b.y of Redstone.

William Dunning being solemnly called upon to declare the truth saith, that being present the whole time that the Committe of Synod sat at Pittsburgh on Mr. Barr's affair, he did not hear either Mr Galbraith or Mr. Wilken express any design of defrauding the Revd. Samuel Barr of his salary before sd. Committe; that neither of sd. Gentlemen were present after the first day that the Committe of Synod sat: That sd. Gentlemen were not called upon collectively or severally to appear as prosecutors against Mr. Barr, but that the general question being put, who will come forward and prosecute Mr. Barr? they declare their willingness to appear before them in the same manner that they had formerly done before the P. b. y of Redstone.

The P. b. y after fully hearing the matter, and examining the witnesses that were produced, and from the knowledge that they have of the conduct of Mesrs. Galbraith and Wilken throughout the whole of this affair do judge that they ought not any longer to be held under censure, as it does not appear that they have been guilty of the crimes alledged against them.

P. b. y proceeded to take in supplications for supplies.

Supplications for supplies were brought in and read from Sandy Creek and Crab-Orchard, from the forks of ten-mile and Pike run, from buffalo and Cross Creek, from Harison County, Middle town and Morgan town.

Applications for supplies were made from Lebanon, Mingo Creek & horse shoe bottom, Mill Creek and King's Creek, Pittstownship and Ebenezer on puckety, from George's Creek, Cambel's tent, and Bethel and Ebenezer on Blacklick.

Ordered to read the minutes of our last fall's meeting so far as they respect supplies: which was done: whereupon it was found that the members present have fulfilled their appointments.

Ordered to read the minutes of the last Sessions of P. b. y.

Mesrs. Finley's, Clark's, McMillan's Dunlap's, Jening's and Brice's reasons for not attending the last meeting of P. b. y were sustained.

P.b.y. find that Mr. Cooley's Credentials have been laid before the General Assembly at their last meeting, and were judged by them to be forged, and consequently that he ought not to be received as a minister in good standing with their body.

P.b.y proceeded to consider a reference from the Session of Unity, respecting a charge exhibited before that session by Charles McRight holding forth that a Certain Hugh Bean, had acted contrary to an oath taken by him, to abide by the verdict of men in a case referred to them, by said Bean and McRight; and also that Hugh Bean had said that Charles McRight had acknowledged himself to be the father of Hugh Beans Daughter's Child, which acknowledgment Charles McRight denies. And having attended to the testimony produced, and taken all the light which they could obtain are of opinion, that Hugh Bean cannot be admitted to distinguishing privileges in our church, until he acknowledge his wrong in swearing to abide by the judgment of Arbitrators, not knowing but that judgment might involve him in sin: and for his not using every mean in his power to fulfil the obligations he came under by said oath.—The P.b.y are also of opinion that the testimony produced by Hugh Bean has exculpated him so far of the fact alledged against him in the latter charge that they do not think him liable to any censure upon the account thereof. P.b.y ordered Mr. McPherrin to read this judgment publickly in the Congregation upon Hugh Beans Compliance therewith.

Demas Linley and Moses Coe requested leave of absence which was granted.

James Christy came before P.b.y and requested a reconsideration of a former judgment of P.b.y, whereby he looks upon himself to be agrieved.

Mr. Mahon having made application for ordination, and having professed a willingness to be installed as the Pastor of Pittsburgh Congregation: P.b.y, proceeded agreeably to our constitution to converse with him upon his acquaintance with experimental religion, and proposed to him several cases of conscience, but did not receive such satisfaction as would induce them to proceed to his ordination at present. But if at any other time he shall think himself able to give further light upon these matters, P.b.y, shall be ready to receive it.

Mr. Samuel Mahon who some time ago was received as a regular licentiate upon testimonials from the Carlisle Presbytery after continuing some time in Pittsburgh, applied for ordination, whereupon the P.b.y proceeded to converse with him upon his acquaintance with experimental religion, and proposed to him several cases of conscience, but did not receive such satisfaction as would induce them to proceed to his ordination: therefore he requested a dismissal which was accordingly granted. Mr. Riddle agreeably to request obtained leave of absence. —

P.b.y, having heard the parties and taken all the light which they could obtain, are of opinion that Robert Dickey acted imprudently in going to hear Mr. Dun, and that he ought to acknowledge his fault, in so doing, before he is admitted to the distinguishing priviledges of the church.

The P.b.y after hearing the parties, and examining Mr. Hill, who declared that he was an eye witness to Mr. Rainey's conduct and that he saw him acting in an unbecoming manner, and smiling in the time of public worship, upon the whole judge, that as Mr. McPherrin particularised none by name, but only reproved such conduct in the general, he was very justifiable in what he did.

WEDNESDAY October 22d. 1794

The Synod having appointed the P.b.y. of Redstone in conjunction with the Ohio P.b.y. to superintend the seminary in Washington County and to attend the examination of the students, either in their Collective capacities or by committees from their bodies duly appointed,

P.b.y did therefore appoint Messrs. Power, Dunlap, McPherrin and Smith a committee to attend to that business next week.

P.b.y. finding that their members have been deficient in complying with a recommendation of the General Assembly to produce historical sketches of their several Congregations did and hereby do strictly enjoin it on their members to collect and compleat, the materials required and bring them forward to the next meeting of Presbytery.

Upon enquiry Mr. Messer declared that he was determined to give up the Call from Mingo-Creek and Horse shoe Bottom. According to Mr. Messer's request P.b.y. dismissed him to join the P.b.y of Ohio and do hereby recommend him to that P.b.y as a Licentiate in good standing.

P.b.y. proceeded to take in supplications for supplies, which were presented from the following vacant Congregations, viz. Tyrone, Tygar's Valley, Clark's-Burgh, Middle Town, Sandy-Creek, Crab-Orchard, Morgantown, Bethel and Ebenezer on Black lick.

The request of the United Congregations of Ebenezer and Bethel on Black lick for liberty to invite Mr. Adam Freeman a Licentiate of Lexington Presbytery, to visit them was granted by P.b.y.

Synod having appointed the Second Thursday of November next to be observed as a day of solemn fasting and prayer throughout their Churches, on account of the present calamitous and threatening situation of our Country and to mourn over the great prevelancy of Sabbath breaking, swearing, lying and other vices innumerable which abound in many parts of the land and which have provoked God thus to threaten and afflict our once happy land: to entreat the Lord on our behalf and in behalf of our bleeding Country that he may yet turn from his great displeasure remove his chastising hand, avert the calamities of a civil war, and bless our confederate States with peace.

P.b.y. agreed to observe the appointment of Synod and recommend the careful observance of that day in the manner and for the reasons specified by Synod to all the Congregations under their care.

P.b.y proceeded to consider a reference from the Session of Long Run in the affair of a certain Eloner Donaldson who had appeared before said Session, and confessed that she had signed an instrument of writing criminating herself by lying, and that at the time of her signing said paper she was conscious that she acted wrong in so doing: but was influenced to do so by threats and fear of the consequences.

P.b.y. having heard what testimony could be had on the matter and maturely deliberating thereon are of opinion that previous to Eloner Donaldson's admission to distinguishing priviledges in the church, she shall upon evidence of repentance be reprov'd and admonish'd by the moderator of the Session of said Congregation in the presence of the Session, and that this judgment be read in the congregation. Moreover P.b.y are of opinion that Eloner Donaldson's character ought not to suffer on account of an Oath of Hannah Hamilton, because all the light obtained on that matter is Hearsay Testimony, and because said Hamilton does not appear to us to be a competent witness in that case even though a copy of her oath could be obtained.

P.b.y. proceed to consider a reference from the Session of Congruity respecting a certain James Christy and Rebecca Gordon, which had been formerly considered by this P.b.y. as will appear by their minutes Oct. 17th. 1792, and the P.b.y. at that time were unanimously of opinion, that no credit was to be given to the oath of Rebecca Gordon, and therefore no sufficient evidence to criminate said Christy, yet as there appeared to have been unbecoming conduct between the parties, that neither of them were to be admitted to distinguishing privileges in the church until providence should shed further light on the matter.

P.b.y. upon application took this matter into further consideration and are of opinion that, as no light has been shed on the matter for such a length of time, it will not be prudent to defer the matter any longer, but that James Christy be restored to his former standing in the church, providing the Session are satisfy'd with respect to any unbecoming circumstances, that may have attended the affair.

The Revd. James Finley applied to P.b.y. for a dismission from his Congregations, on account of his bodily infirmities and other corroborating circumstances.

P.b.y. having taken the affair into consideration ordered the congregations now under the Pastoral charge of Mr. Finley to be requested to send Commissioners to the next meeting of P.b.y. to offer reasons, if they had any, why the pastoral relation between them and Mr. Finley should not be dissolved.

P.b.y. also ordered Mr. Finley and his Congregations to produce a settlement at our next meeting and that a Copy of the above minute be sent to the Congregations aforesaid.

The Presbytery resumed the consideration of the affair between the Revd. George Hill and Robert Rodgers, and proceeded to take in the testimony in support of the charge exhibited by Mr. Hill against Robert Rodgers.

James Bready Esqr. being solemnly called upon to declare the truth in the case depending between Mr. Hill and Robert Rodgers, saith that Robert Rodgers, at his own house at the time specified in the charge, did not in positive terms to his recollection call Mr. Hill a liar, or say that he had lied, but that he said what in his opinion implied that he had lied, and that Robert Rodgers said that he was mean. Mr. Hill replied that he should not (charge) him with meanness. Rodgers replied that he was as mean as a dog, and further this deponent saith not.

James Clark being solemnly called upon to declare the truth saith that at his, this deponents mill, Robert Rodgers said and asserted that Mr. Hill lied, and that at his own viz. Rodgers' house he charged Mr. Hill with meanness.

Mr. Hill told him that he ought not to charge him with meanness, and that Rodgers replied that he was mean or meaner than a dog, and that Robert Rodgers at his own house said what amounted to an acknowledgment of what he said at his, viz the deponents Mill with regard to Mr. Hills lying. And further this deponent saith not.

Robert Rodgers acknowledged that he had written and put up an Advertisement in the following words viz. That a report circulated in the Congregation of wheatfield, by the Revd. George Hill, that I had received a small quantity of grain to the amount of 7 or 8 bushels, from George Farmer and others, I desire the Congregation to attend against the Twenty eight day of May and bring in their receipts so as we may settle for I would not ly under the aspersions of a lying tongue.

Revd. John McPherrin being solemnly called upon to declare the truth saith that when he went to serve the Citations of P.b.y. on Robert Rodgers, that Rodgers said he did not deny the charge and further saith (not).

Robert Rodgers being called upon to make his defence said that he had no Testimony to offer except two papers which he had put into the hand of the Moderator, which papers being examined by P.b.y did not appear to cast any light on the subject.

The Presbytery having examined the Testimony and taken all the light which they could obtain in the affair between the Revd. George Hill and Robert Rodgers are unanimously of opinion that the charge against Robert Rodgers is supported both by the Testimony of indifferent persons, and the acknowledgment of Rodgers himself. It is therefore their Judgment, that Robert Rodgers shall not be admitted to distinguishing privileges in the Presbyterian Church until he acknowledge in the presence of the United Session of Mr. Hill's Congregations that he has treated the character of the Revd. George Hill in an indecent and unchristian manner, which acknowledgment shall be read in the presence of Wheatfield Congregation.

Ordered that the above judgment be read in presence of each of Mr. Hills' Congregations as soon as convenient.

P.b.y. proceeded to consider a complaint laid in by Isaac Rodgers against the Revd. George Hill, wherein he charged Mr. Hill with refusing to give him the name of his accuser and a hearing in a Certain case.

George Finley being called upon solemnly declared that on a certain time Isaac Rodgers applied to Mr. Hill for privilege, Mr. Hill told him he had heard that he had been engaged in dancing. Isaac Rodgers asked the name of his accuser.

Mr. Hill replied that if he denied the charge he should have a hearing and the name of his accuser. and further this deponent saith not

No other witness having been offered in support of the charge P.b.y are unanimously of opinion that the charge exhibited by Isaac Rodgers against the Revd. George Hill is ungenerous and without any foundation and that he shall be rebuked by the Moderator for bringing forward said charge.

Ordered that a Copy of this judgment be read in presence of wheatfield Congregation.

P.b.y. Continue their recommendation with regard to raising contributions for the support of the mission of Synod.

P.b.y. having taken up an appeal from the judgment of the Session of Sawickly in which a certain Charles Jordan and his wife were convicted of the crime of fornication before marriage: and having examined the testimony on which said judgment was founded unanimously agree to confirm it.

The Revd. Thomas Moore a member of the Ohio Preslytery being present and invited took his seat as a correspondent.

Mr. Swan and Mr. Fullerton appeared before P.b.y agreeably to citation and declared a readiness to have the matter of difference between them investigated.

Upon recourse to a publication in the Pittsburgh Gazzette under the signature of William Fullerton P.b.y found the following charges contained in that piece by Mr. Fullerton against the Revd. William Swan viz.

1st. the charge of dishonesty. 2d. the charge of two very indecent letters.

3d. That Mr. Swan gave vent to a torrent of abuse and misrepresentation.

4th. that Mr. Swan propagated or countenanced Slanderous reports.

Jonathan Smith solemnly declared that he never heard Mr. Swan say anything injurious to Mr. Fullertons character.

That with respect to the silver watch mentioned in the publication it was evident the outside case was dinged and that the hinge of the inside case was broke tho not easily discovered and further saith not.

David Shields solemnly declared that he never heard Mr. Swan say anything injurious to the character of Mr. Fullerton, but believes from some circumstances that Mr. Swan suspected that Mrs. Fullerton was the author of a letter which was sent him signed by Mr. Fullerton. This deponent further said, that the epithets which he applied to Mr. Fullerton's character did not respect the difference between Mr. Swan and Mr. Fullerton, but between said deponent and Fullerton.

The Revd. James Power being called and duely sworn did testify that he purchased the foresaid silver watch in the year 1793 for a new one of Mr. Heep of shipensburgh at first cost for Five pounds seventeen and sixpence. That Mr. Campbel of Beason Town a silver smith said it was a good one and purchased at a low price. That Mr. Heep sold for Twenty Dollars watches of equal quality and price which he had purchased at the same time.

James Caldwell being called upon and duly sworn did testify that he was one day at the house of the Revd. William Swan when he was writing one of the letters above mentioned to sd. Fullerton and understood by the drift of Mr. Swans Conversation that he suspected that the letter sent to him with Mr. Fullertons signature affixed to it was written by his wife.

the further consideration of Mr. Swan's and Mr. Fullerton's case was deferred until to morrow.

Adjourned to meet at this place to morrow morning at nine, OClock concluded with Prayer.

Thursday morning P.b.y met agreeably to adjournment Constituted with Prayer.

Agreeably to order the minutes of the last Session were read.

A reference from the Session of Salem Congregation was brought in respecting a charge taken up Fama Clamosa against Samuel McPherrin of Countenancing and encouraging his son Robert in fighting and of using profane language.

P.b.y having examined the documents presented for their consideration and having taken all the light which they could obtain are of opinion that altho it is highly probable, that in the darkness of the night and agitation produced by the quarrel all the evidences understood the conduct of Samuel McPherrin as they related it upon Oath yet from comparing all the attending circumstances P.b.y judge that Samuel McPherrin ought to stand acquitted of the charges.

It appeared from the report of the Minister and Elders appointed to assist the Session of Long Run in Daniel Flemmings Case, that the matter was settled agreeably to ye. mind of Daniel Flemming & ye Session.

P.b.y resumed the business respecting Mr. Swan and Mr. Fullerton and having taken all the testimony which they could obtain proceeded to deliberate on the matter and are unanimously of opinion that all the charges exhibited in the Pittsburgh Gazette under the signature of William Fullerton dated January 18th.. 1799 against the Revd. William Swan are altogether unsupported except the charge of two very indecent letters which are in part supported as to the letters P.b.y are of opinion that altho Mr. Swan received considerable provocation, yet they especially the latter were not written with that Spirit of meekness and caution which becomes a christian and much more a minister of the Gospel, and therefore as far as a contrary spirit prevails in them it is entirely disapproved of by P.b.y.

And whereas Mr. Fullerton has implicated in his publication against Mr. Swan the charge of dishonesty, and has expressly charged him with giving vent to a torrent of abuse and misrepresentation propagating or countenancing scandalous reports and has in the opinion of P.b.y not only failed to support these charges but been guilty of an evident violation of the rules of the Church in reporting to a newspaper publication hereby Slandering the character of a Gospel minister in a very extreme degree,

P.b.y judge that he be rebuked by the moderator and excluded from the priviledges of the church until he shew satisfactory evidence of repentance for his fault and that this judgment respecting him be read in public in both Mr. Swan's Congregations

Mr. Swan being present acquiesced in the judgment of Presbytery.

Upon enquiry it was found that the following sums were collected for commissioners to the General Assembly viz.

The Committee appointed to confer with the Revd, Joseph Stockton on certain points affecting the good order & discipline of the Church in his care, & for collecting information on sd, points reported,—that they had met & conferred with Mr, Stockton on the following points—viz

- 1st Respecting his having vindicated private baptism—
- 2d Respecting dining abroad with parties on the Sabbath —
- 3d-Playing at Backgammon or Chess—
- 4th-Baptizing a child for Mr. Comwell in the Borough of Pittsb,g —he not being a member of the Presbyterian Church.

5th Advocating Theatrical exhibitions, balls, & the Circus—

Mr. Stockton in conference with the Committee, declared that he had not advocated what is properly called private baptism & that in general cases he had recommended the celebration of that ordinance in the presence of the Church & in the house of worship, & that in cases where the Subject could not conveniently be brought before the church, the ordinance should not be celebrated but in presence of the Session—

Mr Stockton acknowledged that he had baptized a child for Mr, Cromwell, which was apparently at the point of death, but denied that he had dined abroad with any party or parties on the Sabbath, or that he had played at Backgammon or either directly or indirectly, advocated balls or dancing, & that he had decidedly spoken against all Theatrical exhibitions & the Circus—

Mr, Stockton further stated that he had occasionally in conversation with some of the inhabitants of the Borough of Pittsburgh, & in order to maintain neutral ground upon a subject which agitated some of the members of the Churches in that place presented the arguments both for & against the administration of the ordinance of baptism, in private houses, in the presence of the Session, from which it might have been inferred that he was in favour of the practice—

The Committee after paying such attention to collecting information upon the aforesaid points as they thought consistant with their duty—report that they could not obtain any information tending to the establishment of either of those points except yt, of baptism performed in private families—

On motion Resolved that the report of the Committee appointed to confer with Mr, Stockton on some points affecting the discipline and good order of the Church &c—be adopted & that Mr, Stockton acknowledge before the Presbytery his determination to exercise a regular discipline agreeably to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church & in unison with his brethren & that he will decidedly manifest a disapprobation of all fashionable vices—

Applications were made by Alleghany town & Pine-Creek Societies, for the ministerial labours of Mr, Stockton, until the next meeting of the Presbytery—which were granted—

Adjourned to meet in Greensburgh on the 3d, tuesday of Octbr, next—

— Concluded with prayer—

Examined and approved generally thus far by the Synod.

Wednesday morning 9 O clock Pby met agreeably to adjournment— After prayer the minutes of the last Session were read.

An appeal from a decision of the Session of Round hill Church was presented by Elisabeth McConnel in which she complained of the Judgment the Session had formed on the following premises viz

Elisabeth McConnel appeared before Session by request, to state her reasons for non-attendance on the ordinances of the Church—

After observing that she had several reasons which she did not think worth while to mention; she stated that the principle reason of her non-attendance, was, that she could not agree with an opinion expressed by the Revd Robt Johnston in Bible-Class on the subject of falshood—

The opinion was, That there had been cases in which it was right to declare a deliberate non-truth, & to practice deception And that such or similar cases might possibly again occur— The cases referred to were those of the Hebrew Midwives & the wars of Canaan. —

Session after maturely deliberating on the reasons assigned, were unanimously of opinion, that it was not sufficient to excuse her non-attendance in time past; as she had not used any means to obtain further explanation from the Pastor.

And therefore Judge, that she be admonished for the present to attend the means of Grace, & use the proper means to obtain satisfaction on the subject.

After some discussion, the Revd Messrs Wm. Speer & Wm. Wylie, with Charles Porter Elder, were appointed a committee to take the appeal into consideration, & report as soon as practicable.

Resolved that Pby are of opinion that lying is a moral evil, & in no case to be justified—yet they believe that the Revd Robt Johnston in the above case expressed himself under such perticular limitations as are not likely to sanction the use of falsehood in any future case—

And tho' the P,b,y, do not entirely justify the conduct of the appellant in absenting herself from the public ordinances of the Gospel in that place yet they are of opinion, that with a full view of the circumstances in which she was placed, her conduct admits such paliation as authorises this P.b.y. to reverse the decision of Session—

The Revd John Ross by letter renewed his request for leave to resign his Pastoral charge of the Congn. of Summerset.

The commissioners from sd. Congn. having declared their acquiescence, P.b.y agreed to grant his request—& dismissed him to join the Pby of Washington Ohio

A motion was made & seconded, to reconsider the vote of the last stated meeting of P b y, on the reception of Mr Thos Davis as a candidate for the Gospel Ministry, predicated on the apprehension of sundry Members, that that vote was not strictly constitutional.

After due deliberation, P b y unanimously resolved.

1st. That inasmuch as a variety of circumstances in the education & qualifications of Mr Davis, decidedly exhibit his case as an extraordinary one. And inasmuch as his expectations have been raised by that vote, his attention employed for a considerable time in preparatory studies, & as he has acquitted himself in examination on Religion—on the Sciences, & also in sundry trial discourses to the satisfaction of P b y—that it is incumbent on this P b y to proceed with Mr Davis according to the original vote in his case—

2dly. That altho' this proceeding is admitted in this particular case, under the influence of considerations & circumstances, of such peculiarity, as reconcile us to progress in the course on which we have entered, this is to form no precedent in future applications for licensure as this P b y highly esteem the salutary provision of our constitution to protect the church from the great injury which would result from the admission of men into the Gospel Ministry without the benefit of an education which may correctly be called liberal

The committee appointed at the request of the session of Fairfield Congn., in relation to a difference existing between the Revd George Hill, & Thos Pollock Esqr, reported, & the report was adopted, & is as follows viz

FAIRFIELD Novr. 6 1821

The committee appointed by the P by of Redstone, to accomodate a difference existing between the Revd George Hill Pastor, & Thomas Pollock Esqr Elder of Fairfield Church, met agreab(l)y to appointment in Fairfield Church. Present the Revd Mess Wm Wylie & Andrew O Patterson; with Josep(h) Baldrige Elder. Mr Wylie in the chair

After prayer, the session of Fairfield Church, being called upon for information, respecting the matter of difference referred to in their memorial, were heard in explanation at some length, to which succeeded the verbal statements of the Revd George Hill, & Thos Pollock the parties immediately concerned. When the parties had made considerable progress in their statements, the Revd Francis Laird, & John Barnett arrived, & were informed of the course which had been pursued, & of the amount of information obtained: upon which the parties were permitted to proceed with their naratives alternately, untill it appeared, to be conceded that the whole view of the subjects of disputation, both of those parts in which the several statements agreed, & of those, in which they differed, was pretty fully presented.

In this presentment; so different in many things were the statements: so confident were the parties of being able to prove those statements: so great the number of witnesses, to be severally employed; so extended & strong the feelings of the different sides; so numerous the items to be substantiated; so remote the commencement of the unhappy affair; so changed the complection & magnitude since its outset; so numerous its appendages, & necessarily, so different the memories of a great number of witnesses very differently interested, & especially respecting things for the most part casually introduced & now long since passed; that of course, an investigation must prove, so lengthy, so involved, so irritating to many concerned, so fatal to the peace, if not to the existence of the Church of Fairfield, & so uncertain would be the attainment of Justice in the end; that the Committee felt peculiarly anxious to avoid an investigation entirely, if almost any kind of an accommodation could be effected. With this view, the parties were addressed from the chair. And after various propositions had been made, & some time spent by the Members of the committee conversing with each other, & with the parties individually, they agreed to the following statement viz

The Revd George Hill, & Thos Pollock Esqr deeply sensible of the importance of terminating, as far as possible, the unhappy difference which has for some time existed between them; & of promoting the peace of the Church of Jesus Christ, have agreed to bury in oblivion, every unfriendly occurrence which has taken place on either side. The Revd George Hill, also agreed to give Thomas Pollock a dismission from the Church of Fairfield. With this agreement the remaining members of the session of Fairfield declared themselves pleased.—

A memorial, containing a joint request of the congregations of Fairfield, Ligioneer, & Donegal, was presented to Pby, praying for a decision on the question, whether Ligioneer shall continue as a distinct Congn.

After hearing the Commissioners from sd. Congregations & the several written statements presented, it was on motion resolved, that Pby do not feel themselves justifiable, in deciding on the above question; but earnestly recommend it to these Congregations, to cherish a spirit of accommodation & christian forbearance & make those arrangements among themselves, which will best secure the peace of the church, & the support of the Gospel amongst them.

After prayer the minutes of the last session were read.

A report was presented by the committee on Congregational reports & contributions, which was accepted, & is as follows

The Committee to whom was referred the Subject of Congregal. reports & contribution(s) beg leave to state; that, whereas the vacant congregations in our bounds, generally, & some of those which are favoured with the stated Ministrations of the Gospel, have, hitherto, been inattentive to the orders of the Genl Assembly on the subject of Congregational reports, & have not contributed to any considerable extent, to the great purposes, to which the Providences of God invites the most interested exertions of his Church at the present day, therefore

1 Resolved, that it be enjoined on every Member of this Pby to furnish anually, at their Spring meeting, a report from his own charge, if he has a Pastoral charge, complete, on all the particulars on which reports are required; & that the following Members be appointed to procure Congregational reports from the vacant Congregations in our bounds: Viz from Kittaning, Warren, Ebenezer & Bethel, the Rev Thos Davis—— Glade-run, Plumb-creek & Jefferson, the Rev David Barclay—— Fairfield, Ligioneer Donegal & Summerset, the Rev A. O. Patterson—— Long-Run & McKeesport, the Rev Robt Johnston—— Union Town, & Middleton the Rev. A. G. Fairchild

2 Resolved that it be enjoined on every Member of Pby to be careful to take collections for the commissioners fund; & that Pby at their Spring meeting anually make enquiry on this subject, & mark with disapprobation every member who shall neglect this injunction

3 Resolved that the several Congregations be directed, to forward contributions anually, not only to the commissioners fund, but also, to the Education, & Missionary funds, unless these objects are otherwise provided for

Pby feeling, deeply, the disadvantages of their vacancies, do consider their compliance with the above resolutions, as calculated, not only to discharge their duty, but also to secure their own prosperity, by the blessing of God on those who cast their mite into his treasury, in aid of the conflict which now employs his Church.

Pby, therefore, while they recommend, & require a marked attention, from their vacant Congregations, to the above particulars, do also recommend a special attention to social worship on every vacant Sabbath.

This practice suitably attended to, has, in many instances, cherished christian affection, strengthened the habit of meeting for public worship, & greatly promoted the Spiritual welfare, & salvation of Souls——

Resolved that the Members take a copy of the above report, to be read in their respective charges, & the vacancies they may be called to supply.

Also, with a breach of trust, in leaving a borrowed horse in Mount-pleasant, after attempting to sell him, & pledging a borrowed watch in the same place.

After reading the documents, & hearing the Appellant & Session, P b y reversed the desicion—

The Congregation of Long Run, requested liberty to apply to other P b y s for supplies; which was granted

The P b y of Redstone taking into consideration, the alterations proposed by the last Genl Assembly in the Confession of faith & form of Church Govt..

Resolved (Nem. con. . that this P b y cannot agree to the erasure of the last clause of Sectn. 4th Ch 24th of the confession of faith, for the following reasons.

1st Because the creed of every Church ought, to be derived immediately & wholly from the word of God; & if once rightly settled can never, with propriety be altered, in accommodation to any changes in human Society, or in the circumstances of the Church.

2d Because small alterations in the creed of a Church, is calculated to disturb the peace, & alarm the minds of its members, least they should prove the introduction to innovations of greater importance

3d. Because every person of Sound Judgment & accurate observation, must regard a Spirit of change in this particular, as productive of the most mischievous results—It gives plausibility to the Infidel objection, that there is no truth clearly revealed in the word of God— Inasmuch as its friends pretend to find truths in it at one time, which at another, they discover to be false—and it distroys the public confidence in those, who maintain a system which is liable to continual fluctuation.

4th. Because they believe that the doctrine of the clause proposed to be erased from the Confession of faith, is evidently contained in the Divine law, prohibiting the inter marriages of near relations, if fairly & judiciously interpreted.

Resolved further, that in the opinion of this P b y, all alterations in, & additions to, the constitution of our Church, are calculated to violate established & useful habits; & that prudence requires that no such attempts should be made, unless imperious necessity requires it, which they cannot perceive in the present case; & are therefore of opinion, that the proposed alterations in, & additions to the constitution of our Church ought not to be made.—

Resolved that a Presbyterial fund be instituted; of which the Rev A O Patterson was appointed treasurer.

P b y after maturely deliberating on the charges prefered against the Rev Nathaniel R Snowden & the evidence produced to support them, decided, that none of them were substantiated by testimony excepting the last specification.

P b y, however are of opinion, that a degree of impropriety, appears from the testimony, to attach to the conduct of Mr Snowden, in reading a certificate which he had drawn up for Miss Graham to sign, tending to exculpate him from another charge, before he obtained her signature, & which, according to his own acknowledgment, she afterwards refused to sign, because, as she alleged, the contents of the certificate were not correct.

And further: that the conduct, of Mr, Snowden in making an appointment for his son to preach, was highly improper, & inconsistant with the purity & peace of the Church, & with the character & standing of the Gospel Ministry; & therefore Judge that he acknowlege his fault in the above perticulars, & be solemnly admonished by the Moderator.

Resolved. that the Moderator admonish the prosecutor, for not having taken that precaution he ought to have done, to ascertain, whether he had sufficient evidence to support the charges, before he presented them to Pby.

Pby resumed the consideration of the petition from East Liberty. & after considerable discussion, it was on motion resolved that the prayer of the petition be granted; & the Rev Mrss Joice & Graham were appointed to organize the congregation.

Of this decision Mr Graham declared his intention to complain to the Synod of Pittsburgh for the following reasons viz

1 Because the Pby acted precipitately in the case, & refused to give his Congregation a hearing

2 Because he sincerely believed, their decision was directly calculated to destroy the Congregation over which he had been Pastor for 23 or 24 years

3 Because the precedent, if generally acted on, would destroy a great proportion of the Congregations in the bounds of the Pby.

4 Because there was only a small proportion of those who applied for the erection of a new Congregation presbyterians.

5 Because the decision implied a reflection or censure on him, for neglect of Ministerial duties

Signed

James Graham.

WEDNESDAY MORNING 9 O'clock

Pby met according to adjournment, Members present as above. After prayer the minutes of the last session were read—

A call was presented from the Congregation of Lower Plumb creek, for one half of the Ministerial labours of Mr Elisha D Barret, in which they promise him two hundred dollars a year, in regular half yearly payments; & also a call from the Congregation of Glade-run, for one half of his Ministerial labours, in which they promise him two hundred dollars a year, in regular half yearly payments

Pby, having ascertained that the calls were regularly prepared, & no obstacles in the way, agreed to put them into Mr Barrets hands, of which he declared his acceptance

Mr Barret was directed to prepare a discourse on Col, 1: 14 to be delivered at the next meeting of Pby, as part of trials for ordination

Pby agreed to meet at lower Plumb creek on the second Tuesday of December next, to ordain Mr Elisha D Barret if the way be clear; & the Rev Jesse Smith was appointed to preach on the occasion, & the Rev Saml McFarren his alternate, & the Rev John Reed to preside & give the charge, & the Rev Joseph Harper his alternate.

Mr Adam Torrence offered himself as a candidate for the Gospel Ministry. Pby having ascertained that Mr Torrence is a member of the Church in good standing & has passed thro a regular course of education, proceeded to examin(e) him on his experimental acquaintance with religion, his knowledge of the Latin & greek languages, & the natural & moral Sciences, & sustained his answers as parts of trial.

The following question was assigned to Mr Torrence as a theme for exegesis

Quod objectum est, et quae causa efficiens fidei?

On motion resolved, that it be recommended to the Members of this Pby, to pay more particular attention to the constitutional injunction on the subject of reading the Sacred Scriptures, as a part of Divine Service, on the Sabbath

A memorial from the Congregation of Beula, praying the Pby to reconsider their decision, relative to the organization of a congregation at East Liberty was presented.

After some discussion, the consideration of this memorial was indefinitely postponed.

The committee appointed to take into consideration the recommendation of (the) last Genl Assembly, on the subject of the Genl Union for promoting the observance of the Christian Sabbath, presented the following report, which was adopted—

The Pby of Redstone, view the observance of the Christian Sabbath, of vital importance, in cherishing the benign influence of religion in our happy land:—in promoting that righteousness which alone exalteth a nation—& extending thro' every class of Society, that knowledge & virtue which are the stability of our times— And believing that a careful observance of the duties of that sacred day, is absolutely necessary, for training up & qualifying immortal creatures for that "rest which remains for the people of God beyond the grave." Therefore,

Resolved, that this Pby highly approve of the formation of the Genl Union for promoting the observance of the Christian Sabbath, & do earnestly recommend to their Members & the Churches under their care, a special attention to the recommendation of the last Genl Assembly, to promote the great object of the above Union, by the formation of auxiliary associations, as far as practicable, in all our Congregation(s), & by enforcing the discipline of the Church, whenever the Sabbath is profaned by any of its members

The committee, to whom was referred, the recommendation of the Genl Assembly on the subject of intemperance, presented the following report, which was unanimously adopted

Whereas a Society has been formed in Boston, by a number of pious, philanthropic & patriotic men, from different parts of the United States, denominated the American Society for the promotion of temperance, the object of which is, to discourage the habitual & destructive use of ardent spirits: & whereas the Genl Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, have highly approved of the object of this Society, & recommended it to the attention & and co-operation of the Presbyteries & churches under their care. Therefore,

Resolved, 1st. that this P b y cordially approve of the above Society, as proceeding from pious & humane motives: & calculated, under the smiles of a merciful Providence, to check the progress, if not entirely to remove the destructive consequences of intemperance.

2nd Resolved, that we, the members of this P b y, will not make use of spirituous liquours ourselves, nor have them used in our families, except as medicine—that we will not furnish them as an article of accommodation for our friends, & that we will, in all suitable ways, discourage the use of them in the families, & among the people of our respective charges, & in the community generally. We do moreover earnestly hope, that entire abstinence from the use of ardent spirits, except as a medicine, will become general, especially among those who bear the christian name.

The above resolutions, your committee think, are justified, by the few following reasons.—viz Intemperance is evidently a growing evil, extending its desolating influence wth fearful rapidity thro the land, exhibiting mournful cause of alarm to the friends of Religion & humanity. Its ravages are not confined to the ranks of those, who are marshalled under the banners of the God of this world, but have extended even into the precincts of the visible Church; & therefore call loudly for the united efforts of all the friends of God & man, to stay the progress of this deadly foe.

It is given as the deliberate opinion of numerous & highly respectable Medical Societies that, what is called the temperate use of ardent spirits, is injurious to health; & it is believed, from the most correct estimates that are made on the subject, that not less than 30.000 human beings, in these united states, anually fall victims to the intemperate use of intoxicating liquors; & probably not less than 100.000 are rendered useless, if not a nuisance to Society. But when we turn our attention to the effects of intemperance, either with regard to its demoralizing influence on Society, or its awful consequences as connected with the retributions of eternity, we are filled with horror, & constrained to use every lawfull effort, & make every reasonable sacrifice, to rescue our fellow men from impending ruin.

Inasmuch as the experience of ages has proved that, neither civil enactments, nor coercive measures, have presented barriers sufficient to stem this torrent of iniquity which threatens to inundate our land, it is believed, the only alternative is, for the friends of humanity & religion, to endeavour, both by precept & example, so to revolutionize public opinion on this subject, that the common use of ardent spirits, either in public meetings or social intercourse, shall no longer be regarded as reputable.

Experience has clearly established the fact, that so long as even the temperate use of ardent spirits is considered a necessary refreshment or a mark of hospitality, the evil will doubtless increase; it is therefore believed, that the only expedient that can be adopted with hope of success is, intire abstinence, except for purposes purely medicinal.

On motion resolved, that it be recommended to the Members of this Pby, to pay particular attention to the directions of the Genl. Assembly, & the subsequent resolution of the Synod of Pittsburgh, on the subject of intercommunion with other churches.

The Rev John Joice reported, that he had, according to the instructions of Pby, organized a Congregation at East Liberty, with thirty one members, & three Elders.

Mr. Wm. Marshal, obtained leave of absence during the remaining sessions of Pby

Mr Mathew Dunlop obtained leave to itinerate without the bounds of this Pby for one year

Resolved that the next stated meeting of Pby be at Greensburgh & the Rev J. Holms Agnew was appointed to open Pby with a sermon.

After mature deliberation, the decision of the session was reversed. —

Mr Richard Graham being sworn said Mr Snowden came to my house early in the day of the fox hunt in the Spring of 1828. I was much employed & noticed nothing extraordinary in his conduct untill about the time the ring was closing. I then noticed him, as he sat by the fire, talking to himself.

Question, by Pby, Was he sober at that time?

A. I saw him afterwards & thought he did not act like a sober man.—

Q Did you see him drink any ardent Spirits that day?— A. I did not; but I sold liquor to persons who said they were going to treat him.

Q Did you believe that Mr Snowden was intoxicated? A. I did.

Q. When the ring was closing, & the men within a few rods of the porch, you say that he inquired where these men were: do you think that, if he had been sober, he must have seen or heard them? A I do.

Q. Why did you not take more perticular notice to him that day?

A. Owing to former differences with Mr Snowden, I did not wish to see him there

Q. You say that whilst Mr Snowden was sitting by the fire, you heard him say, "Is it possible"? What do you think was his meaning?—A My impression was, that he was questioning whether he were intoxicated.

Read & approved by the witness

Mr Robert Woodward being sworn, saith—

I saw Mr. Snowden at the fox-hunt in the Spring of 1828, & he appeared to be intoxicated.

Q. by P by What appearances of this kind did you observe?
A On horseback his feet were out of the stirrups, the bridle on the horse's neck, his hands grasping the mane, & he was hanging to one side.

Q. Are you well acquainted with Mr Snowden, & was his appearance very different from what it is at other times? A I know him well, & his appearance was very different from what it was that same morning, when I saw him at McIntosh's

Q Has Mr Snowden ever endeavoured to induce you not to give testimony against him?—

A He once told me that the fox chase had come up, & he hoped, if I knew anything against him, I would keep quiet.

Q How far did Mr Snowden proceed on his horse in the position which you have described?—A. He continued in that position untill he had proceeded 8 or 10 rods: & then I turned away.

Q Were you fully persuaded that he was intoxicated? A. I was. Q by the accused. Do you think it possible for a man intoxicated, to have sat on my horse at the rate he was going?

A. I do. The horse was walking as far as I saw him.

Read & approved by the Witness.

Mr. Richard Graham was again questioned on oath. Q Was there ever any fox-hunt at your house except the one in the spring of 1828?

A. Never any but that one.

Michael Blare, a witness who had been cited, not appearing, the Rev Messrs Saml. Swan & J. H Kirkpatrick were appointed a committee to meet at the house of Mr Blare this evening at 7 o'clock, to take his testimony & notice of the appointment was given to Mr Snowden

Fredrick Rohrer being sworn saith, That he saw Mr. Snowden, on the day of the fox-hunt, between this place & Mr Graham's, & was impressed with the belief that he was in liquor. Having heard, from many persons, that Mr Snowden had been intoxicated, & having overtaken him on the road took particular notice: & judging from his general deportment on the road, his conversation & his manner of riding, was of opinion that it was different from his deportment & conversation when sober. Q by P by— On what day was the fox hunt at Grahams in the Spring of 1828— A From a reference to my paper in which I advertised the hunt, it appears to have on Tuesday April 22d

Pb y proceeded to examine witnesses on behalf of the accused. Mathias Wolf being sworn, saith— Mr Snowden passed me soon after leaving Mr Graham's. Bells were rung & horns blown, apparently with a design to frighten his horse. He passed at full flight, & appeared to sit firm & steady on his horse. I saw no symptoms of intoxication—could not say that he was or was not intoxicated; but he rode as steady as I would expect any man to do in such circumstances.

This took place not more than 50 rods from Graham's—

Wm. Spencer sworn, saith I saw Mr Snowden & spoke to him about the time he left Graham's; & saw no symptoms of intoxication, but believed him to be sober. Mr Snowden sat on his horse, from Graham's to the turnpike, like a man perfectly sober. — Read & approved by the Witness

George Ross being sworn, saith I saw Mr Snowden on Graham's porch before the lines closed, & conversed with him 8 or 10 minutes, & he appeared to be perfectly sober. I also saw him on his horse, when he was starting, & saw nothing amiss Could not say that he had or had not been drinking. I had not tasted liquor that day myself, & think that a man intoxicated could not have rode as he did— paid but little attention to any person, & saw no one intoxicated that day.

Read and approved by the Witness.

James Kilgore being sworn, saith—I saw Mr Snowden on the turnpike something like 40 rods after he left Grahams. There was a fence between us, & we were about 20 or 30 feet apart. I saw nothing amiss. He rode perfectly upright—his horse was going at a fast trot

Wednesday morning, P b y met according to adjournment. Members present as above. After prayer the minutes of the last session were read

The committee appointed to take the deposition of Mr Michael Blare reported that they had performed that duty & that Mr Blare being sworn, saith — That he saw Mr Snowden frequently on the day of the fox hunt; & from the first time that he saw him, he did not think that he was sober. About the middle of the day, as he (Blare) was standing assisting Mr Graham in selling different kinds of drink, his attention was excited by a noise arising from some person striking against the window. He looked round & saw Mr Snowden sitting at the inside of the window & saw him several times with his fist strike at the window until the pane of glass was broken. Witness called out to him, “that is a pretty thing of you Mr Snowden.” Witness further states that very soon after the glass was broken, he went up to the window & saw Mr Snowden, who looked round upon him & immediately got up & walked thro’ the room staggering a good deal as he went along.

He (Mr Snowden) then went to another room, but returned in a short time. As they were setting table for dinner, in the room to which Mr Snowden returned, he, (Mr Blare) saw him eating the cold slices of beef off the table, & further, saw him go to the cupboard & open it & eat stewed peaches which were there. Witness is sure that Mr Snowden was drunk, & that there was not a man at the place more drunk.

Q. by the Committee. How far distant from the window were you, whilst assisting Mr Graham? A. Not more than a rod,—Q Are you well acquainted with Mr Snowden? A. I am; & could not be mistaken in the man.—Q Was Mr Snowden’s appearance & conduct very different from what they are at other times when you consider him sober? A. Very different.

Read & approved by the Witness.

P b y resumed the examn. of witnesses on the part of the accused.

Joseph Buffington sworn saith. On one day of public meeting at Mr Graham’s in the spring of 1828, whether the day of review or fox hunt I am not certain, I saw Mr Snowden twice, & saw nothing amiss in his conduct or appearance.

Read & approved by the Witness.

James Douglas Sworn saith.

I saw Mr Snowden at the fox-hunt, in the Spring of 1828. When he came he had his stirrup in his hand, & was enquiring for some person who would mend it. I was near Mr Snowden when the line was closing. He asked me to show him the foxes, & I did so. I saw him there during the day, & once asked him to drink, which he declined, saying that he had been drinking. I noticed nothing amiss in his appearance & conduct during the day. I saw no evidence of intoxication, but could not say that he was not intoxicated. Read & approved by the witness.

Walter Sloane sworn saith

I saw Mr Snowden on horseback at the foxhunt at Mr Graham's in the Spring of 1828, & considered him perfectly sober. It was after the ring had closed. He sat erect as usual on his horse, & I saw no evidence of intoxication.

Whether his horse was standing or moving when I saw him I do not know. Read & approved by the Witness.

Elisha Cuninghame sworn saith

I saw Mr Snowden at the fox hunt at Mr Grahams, in the spring of 1828, both in the house & on the porch, & considered him sober. I saw no more evidence of intoxication then, than I see at present. I spoke to Mr Snowden in different parts of the house & on the porch. The whole time during which I saw him, amounted to something like fifteen minutes. Read & approved by the witness

James Richards sworn saith

I saw Mr Snowden at the fox hunt at Mr Graham's in the Spring of 1828. I had seen him in the early part of the day at Captain McIntosh's, & he asked my opinion about the propriety of his attending at Graham's. At the latter place I saw him standing on the porch when I was 3 or 4 rods distant from him. I saw nothing amiss, but did not take particular notice. Read & approved

Robert Brown Sworn, saith

I met Mr Snowden on the steps of the poarch, on the day of the fox hunt, & shook hands with him. I saw no evidences of intoxication, & think, if he had been very drunk, I would have noticed it. I think Mr Snowden was leaving the place & about starting home. I afterwards passed him on my way to Kittaning standing beside his horse. I did not take particular notice, but saw no evidences of intoxication at that time. Read & approved by the Witness

Saml Mathews sworn, saith.

I overtook Mr Snowden twice in returning from the fox hunt at

Graham's in the spring of 1828; & rode with him altogether about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile. I did not take particular notice of him & saw no evidence of intoxication

Q by Pby. Did you receive any communication from Mr Snowden relative to this trial?

A. I did receive a letter from him, dated at Freeport, on his return from P.b.y. In this letter, he requested me to speak to Mr Richard Graham, to prevent his coming forward as a witness against him.

Q Did you see Mr Snowden drink any liquor that day? A. I did once at least Read & approved

After hearing the witnesses, & Mr Snowden commenting on it in his own defence, until he declared himself satisfied, the Members were called, in the order of the roll, to express their opinions. The final vote was then taken, & the P.b.y. unanimously Judged, that the charge was supported; for the following reasons

1st Because the testimony of two witnesses,—Woodward & Blare, which, according to our constitution is sufficient to support a charge, is positive; & that of two others Graham & Rohrer, tho' not positive, affords strong presumptive proof.

2d Because the testimony adduced by the accused is merely negative & cannot set aside positive testimony

3 Altho' Mr Snowden, in his defence, alleged many things against the characters of some of the witnesses in behalf of the prosecution, & represented them as hostile to him, yet no testimony was offered to support these allegations

4th. Because Mr Snowdens conduct in endeavouring to prevent witnesses from appearing is strong presumptive evidence against him

Wherefore resolved; that the Rev Nathaniel R Snowden be, & he is hereby suspended from the exercise of his office as a Gospel Minister, untill, in the judgment of this P.b.y, the way shall be clear for his restoration.

Resolved. That the consideration of the complaint preferred by the Pby of Alleghany in October last against the Rev N. R. Snowden, be postponed for the present

WEDNESDAY MORNING,

P.b.y. met according to adjournment. Members present as above.

After prayer the minutes of the last session were read.

A reference in the case of James Stevenson and Isabella his wife, in which they were charged with unchristian conduct in absenting themselves from the ordinances of the Gospel, was presented to P b y from the session of Round-hill.

After hearing the records of the session in the case & due deliberation, P b y adjudged that the conduct of the accused is censurable, & that they receive a rebuke & admonition from the session, & on their submission to this censure, the Session is advised to grant them a regular dismissal if they request it, to any neighbouring Church they may choose.

The committee appointed to prepare instructions for the Delegates to the Cincinnati Convention presented a report, which was adopted & is as follows Viz

Whereas a difference of opinion & practice exists among the members of the Presbyterian Church in relation to the proper organ for conducting domestic missions, & as in the opinion of this P b y evils have arisen from the conflicting operation of the Genl Assembly's Board of Missions & the A. H. M. Society. And whereas the Genl. Assembly, at its last meeting, adopted the following resolution Viz

“That in view of existing evils arising from the separate action of the Assembly's Board of Missions & A. H. M. Society in the West, it be recommended to the Synods of Ohio, Cincinnati, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, West-Tennessee, & the Presbyteries in the West connected with them, to correspond with one another, & devise a plan for carrying on Missions in the West, & report the result of their correspondence to the next Genl. Assembly it being understood that brethren in the West shall be left to adopt their own plan, & that any other Synods & Presbyteries, besides the above mentioned, in the Valley of the Mississippi, may be embraced in the correspondence if they desire it.

And whereas it is important that every P b y. should freely express their views on this important subject, & with a view to allay the excitement now existing, & also to preserve the identity & distinctive character of the Presbyterian Church—this P b y considers it highly important that their views should be fairly & fully expressed in the proposed Convention. Therefore Resolved

1st That it is expedient to appoint two delegates to attend the Convention to be held in Cincinnati on the 23d Novr next

2d That this P b y have full confidence in the board of Missions of the Genl. Assembly of the Presbyterian Church as the regularly constituted organ of missionary operations, & deprecate a union with any irresponsible association or organized body, for conducting domestic Missions, not amenable to any Judicatory of our Church.

3d That in the view of this P. b. y. the efforts made to effect a union between the two Missionary Institutions is a chief cause of the unhappy excitement now existing in the Church, & if followed up, threatens it with increasing discord & division, & that peace & harmony are not likely to be restored except by abandoning all such efforts in future, & thus allowing each Institution to pursue its own course without impediment or interference on the part of the other.

4th. That the Delegates appointed to attend the convention be instructed to exert their influence to procure a decision of the convention in favour of the Assembly's Board of Missions, & that they oppose, with all their influence, whatever might tend to a union with any other body, not even concurring in a united Agency for conducting Missionary operations in the West.

5th That if the Delegates should fail to carry the last resolution into effect, & a majority of the Convention should adopt any measures with a view to favour a union with any other body, that they be instructed to enter their protest, accompanied with their objections.

6th. That the Stated Clerk be instructed to furnish each Delegate with an attested copy of these resolutions.

7th That in case no one of the Delegates shall be able to attend, that the Stated Clerk be instructed to transmit a letter to the Convention, stating the views & wishes of this Pby as herein expressed; & that a copy of the above resolutions be sent to the Editors of the Presbyterian & the Christian Herald for publication.
